

"Smudge"

Hi, my name is Smudge.

I love to be petted and I enjoy listening to children read. I love the stories they read to me.

While I'm a miniature Schnauzer, I'm not so miniature... I was the largest of six puppies in my litter and I now weigh 26 pounds.

This is my Mom... she will come with me to visit you.

My mom says I was "ready made" for pet therapy.

Maybe I can bring a book with me and you will read me a story! Then I can show you what a good listener I am.

Hope to see you soon!

Love,
Smudge
